Remy Power Products Named Federated Vendor of the Year - Education and Training

PENDLETON, Indiana – June 19, 2017 – Federated Auto Parts has named Remy Power Products as its Vendor of the Year – Education and Training. The award was presented during the recent Federated annual meeting held in Kauai, Hawaii.

“Our partners at Remy have worked hard to increase their role in educating Federated members and customers about changing vehicle technology, product advancements, and diagnostic and repair procedures,” said Rusty Bishop, CEO of Federated Auto Parts. “Through their ongoing commitment to training, Remy is investing in an area essential to our collective success. We are proud to recognize the Remy team and show our appreciation for their efforts.”

“We take great pride in providing industry-leading training, so we are very pleased to be recognized by the Federated membership with this tremendous honor,” said Dave Nichols, president of Remy Power Products. “Federated members understand the importance of staying informed and providing training to their service provider customers so they can efficiently diagnose and repair all types of vehicles. We look forward to continuing our partnership with Federated in this important area for many years to come.”
